This camp is designed for ballplayers of all ages and skill levels to experience everything about America’s pastime. With a fun and positive environment, your child will learn all basic facets of the game, with an emphasis on proper baseball fundamentals, teamwork and sportsmanship. All campers will be placed on a baseball team each week, and a baseball game will be played daily.

Coach Jim Felce is a former player in the Atlanta Braves professional baseball organization and he played college baseball at The University of South Florida. He has many years of baseball coaching experience. He has also been a valuable employee at Palm Harbor University High School for the past 24+ years.
